"The exchange has nothing whatever to do with the settlement of the contro versies between members of the ex-change arising out of existing contracts for the delivery of Stutz Motor stock The settlement of those controversies is entirely a matter for negotiation be-tween the parties, and if they do not agree, to determination by the courts. The exchange has nothing to do with Commissioner Revokes Sergeants' Chart Providing for negotiations between the committee representing the short interest in the stock and representatives of Mr. Ryan. The only interest of the exchange in past transactions in Stutz Motor stock is in ANGRY OVER LOST BILLS the question whether or not in those transactions there has been a violation of its constitution or rules or of just

Ryan Refuses to Arbitrate. At the time he issued his statement Mr. Ryan related that he had attended yesterday a conference with ohn W Prentiss of Hornblower & Weeks and Police Commissioner Enright used his power yesterday to hit back at the police jorder sergeants who opposed the Enright Detective bill at Albany. He issued an order revoking the sergeants patrol of the shorts. Mr. Ryan said they had chart which became operative on March no settlement to offer, but suggested Benevolent Association, who was much on to say: too wise to say anything unless he got a promise that his name would not get settlement. "I have never declined to make a settlement. It has always been my earnest desire to make a settlement. It was I who voluntarily, as the president into print, said that the Enright order was a revenge measure aimed against admits, called attention to the situation. It was I who loaned Stutz stock at the the sergeants for their opposition at Albany to the will of the department chief. This representative offered to bet Exchange's express request and it is these very loans made at their reques that it wouldn't be long until the Com-missioner found ways to "get even" with which they are now endeavoring to repudlate.

The public might be interested to the lieutenants and also with the patrolmen for fighting his pet measure. There was more excitement and gossip within the Police Department last evening than

It was considered to be the best system of hours and condi-tions regulation that could be devised price. For some reason which I cannot discover unless it be that the auto-cratic powers controlling the Stock Exchange are countenancing and fostering it , my contracts haves been broken and under the three platoon system. In all districts it gave a 100 per cent. reserve repudiated in each and every one of these particulars by a number of firms —one sergeant for every twelve patrol-men. Now it is wiped out at a blow because the sergeants had the temerity among whom are the following: Hay-den, Stone & Co.; Lindley & Co., Dominick & Dominick, H. N.
